Course Fee Payment Guidelines

(To be read in conjunction with the fee payment schedule)

- Foundations of Counselling
- The deposit for the full Foundations of Counselling Course or Introduction to Counselling course, should be paid within two weeks of the student receiving their confirmation of the offer of a place on the course.

For the full Foundation, either:

- the remaining fee can be paid in full no later than two weeks before the start of the course OR
- can be spread over 8 monthly payments (for which there is an added administrative fee)

The student must let the Academy know which method of payment they choose. Monthly payments must be by electronic funds transfer to The Academy: S.P.A.C.E. bank account.

- Professional Diploma in Integrative Psychotherapy and Counselling
 - The deposit for the first year of the course must be paid within two weeks of the student receiving confirmation of a place on the course.
 - For second and third year students, their deposit must be paid by the 1st July to confirm an on-going place on the next academic year of the course.
 - The remaining fee for all students, either:
 - May be paid annually in full two weeks prior to the start date of the academic year, OR
 - Must be set up to be paid over 12 months, preferably through electronic funds transfer to The Academy: S.P.A.C.E. bank account (for which there is an added administrative fee) , to start no later than the last Friday of the first week in September. If a student wishes to pay by cheque or cash, then a payment schedule must be set up by agreement with the Programme Director and the administrator informed of the agreement.

The administrator must be advised, when the deposit is paid, which method of payment is chosen.
